San Diego Padres Baseball -- What's Up?

Randy Jones is an all-time favorite San Diego Padres pitcher and is a Charter member of the Padres Hall of Fame. He will speak of us on Thursday.

In his career, the brilliant sinkerball specialist set numerous pitching records while earning countless awards for his performances. The affable lefty is a spokesperson for the San Diego Padres, hosts his own radio show heard throughout Southern California, and has starred in Randy Jones' Strike Zone on the Outdoor Channel since 2005.

We will get the inside scoop on the Padres' season so far and what is likely to happen the rest of this year.

In 1975 Randy won 20 games and led the National League with a 2.24 ERA earning The Sporting News NL Comeback Player of the Year honors.

His best season was in 1976 when he went 22-14 with a 2.74 ERA winning the National League Cy Young Award and being named The Sporting News NL Pitcher of the Year. Randy was selected as the left-handed pitcher on The Sporting News fielding percentage (1.000, 1976) and most assists in an inning (3, 9/28/75 - 3rd inning), and tied the NL pitchers season record for the most double plays with 12 in 1976.

NL All-Star Teams after the 1975 and 1976 seasons.

Randy owns the distinction of recording a save for the NL in the 1975 All Star game and being the starting and winning pitcher the next year. Randy entered the 1976 All-Star Game with a record of 16-3, an All Star break win total that no one has equaled since.

During his last start of the 1976 season, Randy injured a nerve in his pitching arm that required exploratory surgery, and he was never quite able to regain his Cy Young form.

Jones pitched effectively for San Diego through the 1980 season. On December 15, 1980, he was traded to the New York Mets. After the 1982 season, Jones signed with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was released by the Pirates before the 1983 season started, thus ending his playing career.

His career statistics include a 100-123 record and an ERA of 3.42. He was named an All-Star in 1975 and 1976. After his retirement, Jones' uniform #35 was retired by the Padres.
