MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

By Sandie Dewane, Scribe Extraordinaire

Lou Anna Dickerson was our friendly greeter today. Dan Malloy, President of the Week, called the meeting to order.

Bill Angus led us in the Pledge of Allegiance and Mike Sullivan did the Invocation. In Jack Mitchell's absence, Larry Valente led us in a rousing rendition of "God Bless America."

We greeted one visiting Rotarian and two guests. Tim Whyte paid us a visit and was welcomed back enthusiastically. He is going to be in RB for a month and hopefully we'll get to see him a few more times while he is in town.

Dan thanked the following volunteers: Vern Cook, Raffle; Sandie Dewane, Scribe; Lou Anna Dickerson, Greeter; Bill Bonner and Paul Donick, Set up crew; and Rick Bramble, Hat Passer.

Paul Donick reminded everyone that the Day at the Races sign-up sheet was being circulated.

Dan Malloy announced that this year's Recognition Party is scheduled for Thursday, July 1, at 5:30 p.m. at Bernardo Heights Country Club. We will not have a lunch meeting that day. Cost is $30.50 for those who prepay their meals; $45.00 if you do not.

Dan Malloy reported that the Music Camp will take place the last two weeks of July and the Music Camp participants will put on a concert at the District Council on July 31. It will be held at USD. Check the District website for more details. Ron Hunt spoke about the newly formed Friends of Music Camp and the advantages to joining.

Tom Giles was given an award for the Scouts involvement in our Rotarians at Work Day. Thanks, Tom, for all your hard work in coordinating projects and people!

At this point, the dreaded, but ever so handsome, John O'Neill made his way to the podium amongst jeers and cheers. He began by giving Marty Judge a hard time for not signing in and for some of the spelling errors in the Roundup. Marty tried to talk his way out of it, but to no avail and was fined $20.

Sandie Dewane

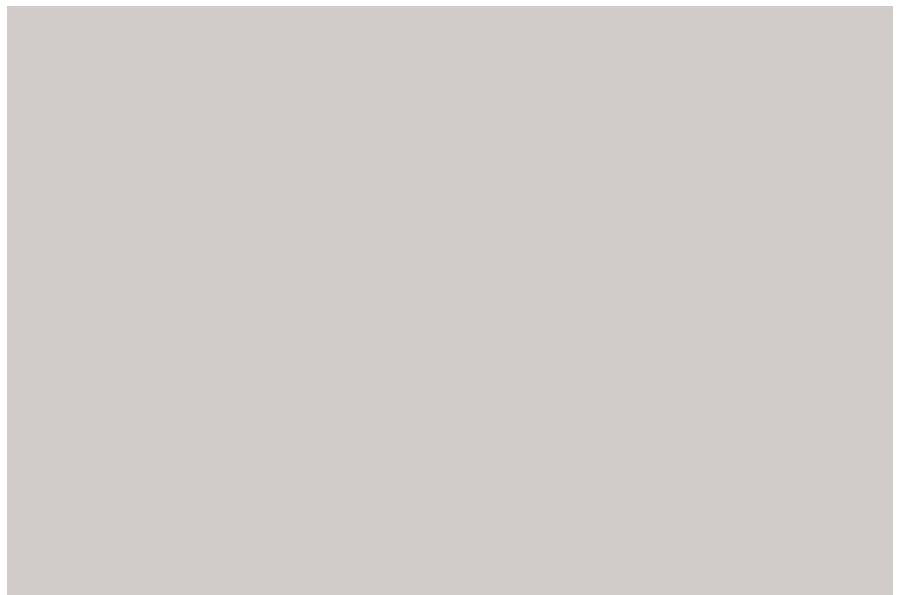

Carol Corey was next as she was supposed to do today's raffle, and was fined $10. Gabriella Brown was fined $2 for coming in late and an additional $5 when her phone started ringing (thanks to Troy Daum for squealing, I mean pointing that out).

The following people gave happy bucks: Bob Wells, Tom Giles, Paul Donick, Mike Sullivan, Larry Valente, Ron Hunt, Tim Whyte and Bill Angus.

Gary Saks introduced today's speaker, Andy Strasberg. Andy is a successful marketing professional who spent 22 years with the San Diego Padres. Through Andy's colorful and entertaining presentation, he took us all with him on a journey that began when Andy was a boy who idolized Roger Maris and the New York Yankees.

His story begins in the parking lot across the street from the Yankees ballpark where he would wait to see his baseball hero, Roger Maris. He described how he went from being Roger's No. 1 Fan to a very special friendship with Roger and, ultimately Roger's entire family, which continues to this day. Great program!

Paul Donick had a chance to win $398, but did not pick the joker.

Jason Salazar Is Rotarian of the Year 2009-10

By Dave Brooks

(From the annual recognition dinner on July 1 at Bernardo Heights Country Club.)

I have a lot of documents on my PC from my 6 years as secretary. So I thought the first thing I should do to prepare a description of our Rotarian of the Year would be to do a search of these documents for this person's name.

I got over 200 hits.

I was elated! I thought this is great; I've got plenty of material.

Then I thought, oh I've got a lot of reading to do.

So I'm going to start out with a list of things this person has done starting out vague and getting more specific. See how long it takes you to figure it out. And I'm going to say "this person" to keep the gender unknown (unless I slip up!)

This person really likes diet sodas. (not much of an accomplishment, but it is vague)

This person grew up in the Midwest (again not much of an accomplishment, but they had the sense to get out and move to RB).

This person organized one of the Outback Steakhouse fund raisers.

This person has been one of my judges for the 4 Way Test Speech Contest

Jason Salaza

This person has been the treasurer of the Foundation for several years.

This person started the Rotary year as head of International Service.

This person has been very active for many years in Youth Services, having overseen the Model UN, RYLA and Interact at RBHS.

This person has sustained a high level of contribution such that this name has come up every year for the last 4 years.

This person became Vice President after Donna Luna de la Fuente resigned.

This person jumped in and did a great job as acting president for the last 3 months.

This person is Jason Salazar our newest Rotarian of the Year!

Recognition Dinner 2009-2010

Rotarians welcomed the new Rotary year, on July 1 at a recognition dinner at Bernardo Heights Country Club, applauded those who had performed above and beyond the call of duty, and ushered in its officers for 2010-2011.

Our new leadership is pictured in the top photo. President Suzie and the First Gentleman are at left. Rotarian of the Year Jason Salazar (below) received a plaque recognizing his considerable contributions to our club from outgoing Secretary Dave Brooks.

A good time was had by all and, surprisingly, no fines were levied.
